

The Stollery Charitable Foundation holds semi-annual granting meetings - one in the spring and one in the fall. The chart below outlines the total funds awarded to projects and programs awarded at the Foundation's September 30, 2017 board meeting. While the Foundation does not accept public grant applications for projects or programs outside of Kamloops and Edmonton, one international grant was awarded.

Replenish the Stollery Small Grants Fund , which is used to respond to smaller, urgent needs in Edmonton throughout the year.	$	60,308
the year.
Replenish The Stollery Charitable Foundation Fund , a donor	$	10,000 advised fund that The Stollery Charitable Foundation uses to respond to smaller urgent needs in Kamloops throughout the year
Funding to support the purchase of a new 16 passenger van	$	50,000 with a wheelchair lift to transport clients to, from, and within the agency's programs.
A contribution to the Bridgeway 2 Housing Capital Campaign,	$	100,000 with 97 supportive living units on 103A Avenue and 95 Street.
A contribution to the Stanley Milner Library Renovation	$	100,000
	$	100,000
	Ś	60,000
	Ŷ	00,000
A grant to upgrade the Urgent Action Network App: "Amnesty	$	20,000
Funding to purchase and install the WISH software program	$	17,800 and related computer hardware . The new shelter-specific database system will replace the current paper-based record keeping system
The Project Enhance Technology Upgrade will enhance and	$	20,500 upgrade the agency's website, web-based interface, and related database to improve reporting capabilities, and for ease of use and improved functionality.
	Funding to support the purchase of a new 16 passenger van with a wheelchair lift to transport clients to, from, and within the agency's programs. A contribution to the Bridgeway 2 Housing Capital Campaign , which is trying to raise $3 million to construct a new building with 97 supportive living units on 103A Avenue and 95 Street. A contribution to the Stanley Milner Library Renovation Capital Campaign , which is trying to raise $10 million to transform the library to allow more natural light, triple the size of the children's library and maker-space, add a café, and incorporate childcare. A contribution to the Child and Family Resources Expansion - one of five Early Learning and Child Care Centres in Alberta; Bissell will provide 30 spaces of low-cost childcare ($25/day) in a new location in McCauley. Funding to support the Kids in the Hall Bistro Renovation and program restructuring, with the goal of program self- sufficiency within three years. A grant to upgrade the Urgent Action Network App: "Amnesty SOS" to improve iOS functionality then duplicate the app for Android devices, which will improve the agency's capacity to appeal for Urgent Action interventions to human rights violations. Funding to purchase and install the WISH software program and related computer hardware . The new shelter-specific database system will replace the current paper-based record keeping system The Project Enhance Technology Upgrade will enhance and upgrade the agency's website, web-based interface, and related database to improve reporting capabilities, and for	Funding to support the purchase of a new 16 passenger van with a wheelchair lift to transport clients to, from, and within the agency's programs.$A contribution to the Bridgeway 2 Housing Capital Campaign, which is trying to raise $3 million to construct a new building with 97 supportive living units on 103A Avenue and 95 Street.$A contribution to the Stanley Milner Library Renovation Capital Campaign , which is trying to raise $10 million to transform the library to allow more natural light, triple the size of the children's library and maker-space, add a café, and incorporate childcare.$A contribution to the Child and Family Resources Expansion - one of five Early Learning and Child Care Centres in Alberta; Bissell will provide 30 spaces of low-cost childcare ($25/day) in a new location in McCauley.$Funding to support the Kids in the Hall Bistro Renovation and program restructuring, with the goal of program self- sufficiency within three years.$A grant to upgrade the Urgent Action Network App: "Amnesty SOS" to improve iOS functionality then duplicate the app for Android devices, which will improve the agency's capacity to appeal for Urgent Action interventions to human rights violations.$Funding to purchase and install the WISH software program and related computer hardware . The new shelter-specific database system will replace the current paper-based record keeping system$The Project Enhance Technology Upgrade will enhance and upgrade the agency's website, web-based interface, and related database to improve reporting capabilities, and for$

Strathcona Place: operates the Strathcona Place 55+	Funding to hire an interim, part-time Social Supports	$	25,400
Outreach and Activities Centre, providing multi-cultural	Coordinator to allow the executive director to focus on a time-activities and services with a goal of healthy aging.	sensitive redevelopment and relocation opportunity.
Alberta Health Services: the fully-integrated health	Funding to support first year start-up costs for The Mind,	$	47,500
system, responsible for delivering health services to	Exercise, NutritionDo It! (MEND) program, a free, family-
Albertans.	based education program that combines physical activity, healthy eating, and behaviour change to facilitate safe,
	effective weight management and lasting lifestyle changes.
	MEND is delivered in Alberta through a partnership between Healthy Weight Partnership Inc., AHS Provincial Primary Health Care Program (PPHCP), and community partners.
Royal Alexandra Hospital Foundation: raises and manages	Funding to support the ACCESS Open Minds Youth Mental	$	58,400
funds to advance and support the Royal Alexandra	Health Clinic - the local chapter of a national research and		, service program designed to improve access to appropriate and home to the C.K. Hui Heart Centre and Lois Hole	mental health and addictions services for youth between the Hospital for Women.	ages of 11 and 25.
Edmonton Womens' Shelter Ltd.: the largest women's	Funding to support a one-year Child Trauma-Informed	$	81,800
shelter in Canada operates three facilities (WIN I, WIN II,	Services and Support Pilot Program to offer assistance to	Ť	02,000
Carol's House) and provides safe housing and services for	children who have experienced or witnessed abuse prior to women and children at risk.	their admission to the shelter.
Thompson Rivers University Foundation: raises and	Funding to support the establishment of the TRU Community	$	50,000
manages funds for scholarships and special needs funding	Legal Clinic, a full-time legal clinic to serve low income clients	Ļ	50,000 and the advancement and enhancement of post-secondary	in Kamloops and the only community legal clinic in the interior of BC.
education at Thompson Rivers University.	01 BC.
WE Charity: an international organization that promotes	Funding to support the expansion of WE Schools Edmonton -	$	50,000
and celebrates youth participation in philanthropy and	a program designed to increase students' academic provides international community development aid.	engagement, active citizenship, and university and workplace readiness through philanthriopic engagement.
YWCA Edmonton: leads, supports, and advocates for	Funding to support the Girl Space Program, designed to	$	30,900
women, girls, and their families - especially the most	impart leadership, resilience, competencies, tools, and impart leadership, resilience, competencies, tools, and vulnerable.	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome vulnerable. Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta:	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and	$	34,900
vulnerable.	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges.	$	34,900
vulnerable. Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health	$	34,900
vulnerable. Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal	$	34,900
vulnerable. Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health	$	34,900
vulnerable. Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton-	$
vulnerable. Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence.	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society.
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton-
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton		34,900 38,100
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth through community engagement in areas of personal interest to build self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership capacity.	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth through community engagement in areas of personal interest to build self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton	$	38,100
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth through community engagement in areas of personal interest to build self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership capacity.	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton Challenge for youth with barriers to participation.	$	38,100
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth through community engagement in areas of personal interest to build self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership capacity. Terra Centre for Teen Parents: responds to the issues and	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton Challenge for youth with barriers to participation. One and a half-year commitment of bridge funding to support	$	38,100
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth through community engagement in areas of personal interest to build self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership capacity. Terra Centre for Teen Parents: responds to the issues and challenges of teen pregnancy for clients who commence services before reaching 19 years of age (24 years of age for young fathers).	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton Challenge for youth with barriers to participation. One and a half-year commitment of bridge funding to support its Volunteer and Community Engagement Services program	$ $	38,100
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth through community engagement in areas of personal interest to build self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership capacity. Terra Centre for Teen Parents: responds to the issues and challenges of teen pregnancy for clients who commence services before reaching 19 years of age (24 years of age	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton Challenge for youth with barriers to participation. One and a half-year commitment of bridge funding to support its Volunteer and Community Engagement Services program	$	38,100 97,300
Aboriginal Counseling Services Association of Alberta: provides education programs and individual counseling to help women, men, and children who have experienced or continue to experience domestic violence. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award of Canada, Alberta and Northwest Territories Division: an award designed to supplement existing programs and empower youth through community engagement in areas of personal interest to build self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership capacity. Terra Centre for Teen Parents: responds to the issues and challenges of teen pregnancy for clients who commence services before reaching 19 years of age (24 years of age for young fathers).	connectedness to female youth and help them overcome challenges. The Creative Art Therapies Program supports wellness and resilience for clients, staff, and volunteers of Aboriginal Counseling Services of Alberta, Canadian Mental Health Association – Edmonton Region, and Edmonton John Howard Society. Partial funding to support the hiring of a second Edmonton- based awards officer to expand the Award Edmonton Challenge for youth with barriers to participation. One and a half-year commitment of bridge funding to support its Volunteer and Community Engagement Services program while the program expands and seeks sustainable funding.	$ $

CEASE: Centre to End All Sexual Exploitation : provides resources for women, children, and sometimes men who are considered vulnerable because they live on the streets or have been sexually exploited.	Funding awarded to purchase client bus passes and tickets to facilitate access to programs, services, and employment; and to cover other organizational discretionary needs.	$	10,000
University of Alberta: aims to create and sustain a vibrant and supportive learning environment that discovers, disseminates, and applies new knowledge through teaching and learning, research and creative activity, community involvement, and partnerships.	Grant will be held in a Stollery Charitable Foundation directed fund to match new and larger donations made by University of Alberta faculty and students in its 2017 United Way campaign.	$	65,000
TOTAL New Commitments - Fall 2017		$ 1,1	147,908