

The Stollery Charitable Foundation holds semi-annual granting meetings - one in the spring and one in the fall. The chart below outlines the total funds awarded to projects and programs in Edmonton and Kamloops at the Foundation's April 23, 2016 board meeting.

Organization	Project	TOTAL
Edmonton Community Foundation: endowed local community foundation that funds local charities based on the interests of donors and the needs of the community	Replenish the Stollery Small Grants Fund , which is used to respond to smaller urgent needs in Edmonton throughout the year.	$40,000
Canadian Mental Health Association - Edmonton Region: works in partnership with other community agencies to educate about mental health and illness, advocate, and to help people build strong supports for community life	Assist with ongoing expenses associated with merger with The Support Network. Merger will result in efficiencies and help ensure no mental health services offered by either organization are lost.	$52,000
Islamic Family and Social Services Association: dedicated to providing services in response to the social needs of the Edmonton community with an Islamic context	Help fund (with other funders) the recruitment and selection of the organization's first executive director; help the organization meet growing service demands.	$38,000
Thompson Nicola Cariboo United Way: the regional United Way based in Kamloops, BC raises money and collaborates with others to move people out of poverty, maximize the potential of youth, and build resilient communities	Funds to allow the United Way to continue its crisis response work and capacity/resiliency building work for charities in Kamloops.	$30,000
Jasper Place Wellness Centre: a poverty relief organization in the Stony Plain Road corridor in West Edmonton	Canora Place upgrades: repair boiler, upgrade flooring, and install a new key-card access system.	$51,300
Chris Rose Therapy Centre for Autism Society: provides therapy and education for children and youth with autism, and community inclusion skills for adults with autism in Kamloops, BC	Funding to replace the existing outdoor playground in summer 2016. The new playground will be used by the agency's clients and students.	$32,000
Operation Friendship Seniors Society: provides community-based preventative social services to the seniors of Edmonton's inner city	Rooming house renovation: paint common areas, replace sinks and countertops in bathrooms.	$32,700
CASA Foundation: raises funds to support the ongoing development and delivery of programs and services provided by CASA Child, Adolescent, and Family Mental Health and raise awareness of children's mental health issues	Capital campaign for new CASA Centre treatment facility in Allendale.	$200,000

The Edmonton Inner City Housing Society: provides supportive affordable housing for individuals and families in Edmonton's central communities who cannot afford market housing	Capital campaign for large family affordable housing complex in North Glenora, targeted for immigrant/newcomer families.	$225,000
Gateway Association for Community Living: provides education, family support, mentorship and inclusive employment for individuals with disabilities	Youth in Care Employment Pilot providing pre-employment skills for disabled individuals living in group homes.	$60,000
Frontier College: a national organization that operates a variety of literacy programs in locations across Canada	Summer literacy camps at Brightview, Montrose, and St. Francis of Assisi schools.	$20,000
The Edmonton School District #7: Edmonton's Public School district, which operates 202 schools for over 92,000 students and provides many forms of specialized programming	The Stollery Literacy Program at McDougall School, including family literacy nights, early literacy lending libraries, and experiential learning opportunities.	$141,000
United Way of the Alberta Capital Region: raises and disburses funds to local charities in addition to operating its own programs that work to create pathways out of poverty	All In for Youth amalgamation of Partners for Kids, Schools as Community Hubs, and Out of School Time; funding literacy resources at Delton School and St. Alphonsus School, including books for classroom libraries, after school and summer programs, and for kids to take home.	$50,000
Youth Canada Association (YOU CAN!): develop relationships with at-risk youth and assist them out of high-risk activities and into school or employment	School Based Relentless Youth Workers at Westmount Jr. High and Queen Elizabeth Secondary to determine needs, goals, and appropriate interventions for youth to stay in school or return to school.	$140,000
John Humphrey Centre for Peace and Human Rights: works to advance a culture of peace and human rights through educational programs and activities, community collaboration, and relationship building	Advancing Reconciliation Pilot Project: a youth-led Indigenous reconciliation project at Queen Elizabeth School and Westmount Fresh Start Program to help students identify human rights gaps, then develop and present policy changes to address them	$40,000
Candora Society of Edmonton: provide community-based programs for low income residents of North-East Edmonton	Indigenous Community Resource Coordinator position will provide culturally competent services and supports for Indigenous community members in the Abbottsfield and Rundle neighbourhoods.	$108,000
Multicultural Family Resources Society: Edmonton based organization dedicated to improving the well-being of immigrant and refugee children, youth, and families	Holistic Social Inclusion Program for Syrian Refugees offering cultural brokering, youth programs, and parenting programs for the 1,500 Syrian refugees that have recently arrived in Edmonton. Referrals come from settlement counselors upon completion of the brief Federally funded settlement program.	$265,500

Gay Lesbian Bisexual and Transgendered Pride Centre of Edmonton (PRIDE Centre of Edmonton): a community based resource centre for Edmonton's LGBT communities	TRANS Program Pilot, creating the PRIDE Centre's first program dedicated to providing services transgendered and gender diverse individuals. Once operational the program coordinator will map existing community services and perform community consultations to identify, then address, gaps in services.	$80,000
Edmonton Womens' Shelter Ltd.: the largest women's shelter in Canada operates three facilities (WIN I, WIN II, Carol's House) and provides safe housing and services for women and children at risk	Nursing services for clients of all three shelters and at Laruna Shelter replacing services previously provided by Victorian Order of Nurses (VON) before it closed local operations	$50,000
Brain Care Centre (BCC): provides programs and services at no cost to individuals who have sustained an acquired brain injury	Concussion Program coordinator pilot will establish a concussion call line, provide the Post-Concussion Program, provide the Concussion Outreach Program, and contribute to the development of provincial and national concussion guidelines.	$55,300
Loran Scholars Foundation: a national organization that awards Canada's largest independent undergraduate merit award on the basis of character, community service, and leadership potential	Stollery Loran Scholarship to be awarded to an eligible student in Edmonton or Kamloops with financial need.	$80,000
TOTAL New Commitments Spring 2016		$1,790,800